

Article: _____

Name: _____

Date: _____

What's in Common?

A Venn diagram is a neat way to organize information when you compare two things. It shows what the two things have in common and what they don't.

Directions: Label the ovals with the two items you are comparing. Write facts about each item in its oval. Place facts that apply to both things in the center section where the ovals overlap.

