

Parts of a Poem

"Ground Hog Day" uses just the right parts of speech to describe its subject, including nouns, verbs, and adjectives. In this activity, you will identify the parts of speech of a variety of words from "Ground Hog Day." Then, you will write your own poem using these words.

Directions: Write each word in the list into the box for the correct part of speech.
(Hint: some words on the list can be more than one part of speech.)

Section 1:

Ground Hog	sleeps	snug	fur	dreams	roots	stir
drowsy	looks	burrow	snow	shadow	sad	wintry

NOUNS name a person, place, thing	VERBS express an action/state of being	ADJECTIVES describe a person, place, thing

Section 2: I will write a poem about _____ using the four nouns, adjectives, and verbs I listed below.

NOUNS	VERBS	ADJECTIVES

Write Now!

On a separate piece of paper, write a poem or descriptive paragraph on your subject using the words you listed.