I Can Prove It!

Part of what makes "The Stars Below Me" such an interesting and engaging story is its main character, Mara. In this activity, you'll think of adjectives that describe Mara and then, for each adjective, find details that demonstrate why you would describe her that way.

Directions: In each bubble, write a word or a phrase to describe her character. Then, below each bubble, list examples from the story that show Mara exhibiting this trait. We've gotten you started!

Write Now!

Now, take out a separate piece of paper. Using one of the bubbles you completed above, write a short paragraph describing Mara. Remember to include supporting details to make her character come alive!
